4.27 If the Credit Union proposes, at its option, to redeem some but not all of the shares of any class, the board may, subject to the Act and these rules, decide the manner in which these shares shall be selected.

4.28 The price payable for any share redeemed by the Credit Union shall be the sum of one dollar ($1.00) per share plus the amount of any dividends which have been declared but remain unpaid on such share on the date fixed for redemption.

4.29 Subject to the Act and sub-rule 4.33, at the full and timely retirement of all indebtedness by a member or junior member who was required by the board pursuant to sub-rule 4.13 to subscribe for and purchase any additional shares which are held at the time of the retirement of such indebtedness in excess of the minimum holdings otherwise required by these rules, the Credit Union shall, upon the member's request in writing, redeem all shares which the member has requested be redeemed except those the member is otherwise required to hold by these rules.

4.30 Subject to the Act and upon the written request of the member or the member's legal representative, the Credit Union shall redeem equity shares held by a member upon the happening of any of the following events:

- (b) the member, in the case of a corporation, is wound up in accordance with the applicable legislation;
- (c) the member, in the case of a partnership or unincorporated association, dissolves;
- (d) the member, in any other case, ceases to be a legal entity according to the legislation that created it;
- (e) the member withdraws from membership; or
- (f) the member's membership is terminated.

4.31 If a member holds equity shares jointly with right of survivorship, the Credit Union shall not be required to redeem the equity shares until the death of the last remaining joint holder.

4.32 The Credit Union may require proof satisfactory to the board of the happening of an event described in sub-rule 4.30, before redeeming equity shares.

4.33 Subject to sub-rule 4.34 and the Act, the maximum number of Class A or Class B shares the Credit Union may redeem in each fiscal year is the amount of shares of such class equal to ten percent (10%) of the aggregate amount of that class of shares issued and outstanding at the close of business at the end of its previous fiscal year.

4.34 The limit set out in sub-rule 4.33 on the number of shares the Credit Union may redeem shall not apply to any Class A shares the Credit Union is required to redeem pursuant to the provisions of sub-rule 4.30, provided that upon the maximum number of Class A shares being redeemed in any fiscal year, the Credit Union shall not redeem any more Class A shares during that fiscal year except pursuant to sub-rule 4.30.

4.35 The board may determine the forms by which a person may request redemption of shares.

- (d) such biographical information respecting the candidates or photographs of them, or both, as the nominating committee may direct; and
- (e) if the nominating committee chooses to recommend a candidate or candidates, an indication of which candidate or candidates the nominating committee endorses or recommends.

6.41 If the voting in any election of directors includes voting in person at branches of the Credit Union then, at least forty-eight (48) hours before the commencement of voting at the branches, the returning officer shall deliver to each branch of the Credit Union a copy of the voter list and materials required to conduct a confidential voting process at the branch.

6.42 The returning officer shall develop and implement voting and election procedures and practices which result in voting being confidential, elections being fair and all of the provisions of these rules and the Statutes relating to voting and elections being complied with.

6.43 Before allowing a member to vote in an election for directors the Credit Union may require proof of the identity of the member.

6.44 No member may vote in an election for directors by proxy.

6.45 A member may vote for any number of candidates up to the number to be elected for a district or as directors at large, as the case may be.

6.46 A ballot which:

- (a) contains a marking which could identify the voter;
- (b) contains votes for more candidates than the number to be elected;
- (c) is dissimilar to those issued by the returning officer.

shall be rejected but a ballot which does not contain votes for the full number of directors required to be elected in a district or as directors at large is valid and shall not be rejected for that reason.

6.47 A ballot shall be void if it contains a vote:

- (a) for a person other than a candidate whose name appears on the ballot as prepared by the Credit Union; or
- (b) which is ambiguous or unclear as to the candidate voted for.

6.48 The returning officer or a person appointed by the returning officer shall count or supervise the counting of votes.

6.49 The returning officer shall declare elected the candidate or candidates who receive the greatest number of votes, up to the number of directors to be elected in each district and as directors at large.

6.50 Where not all candidates who are to be elected in a district or as directors at large can be determined because of an equality of votes, the returning officer shall:

- (a) write the name of each candidate whose election cannot be determined on identical cards;
- (b) place the cards in a receptacle so that none of the names can be read or otherwise distinguished;
- (c) draw by chance the number of cards necessary to make up the required number of directors from that district or as directors at large, as the case may be; and
- (d) declare elected the candidate or candidates named on the card or cards drawn.

6.51 A candidate may attend personally or by agent during proceedings under sub-rule 6.48 and sub-rule 6.50.

6.52 The returning officer shall ensure that a permanent record is kept of the number of votes received by each candidate, and the candidates who are declared elected.

6.53 A candidate who is not elected under these rules and who alleges that the candidate should have been elected in place of a candidate who was elected may, not more than seventy-two (72) hours following announcement of election results, apply in writing to the nominating committee for a review of the election.

6.54 The nominating committee shall promptly review the election if it has received an application for review pursuant to sub-rule 6.53, and shall:

- (a) confirm the declaration made by the returning officer;
- (b) declare that the applicant or another candidate is elected in place of the candidate declared by the returning officer to be elected under sub-rule 6.49 or 6.50; or
- (c) order that a new election be held, and give directions for it which may be by any method permitted by the Act.

6.55 The decision of the nominating committee under sub-rule 6.54 is final.

6.56 The voting papers and other documents of an election shall be retained by the returning officer for at least thirty (30) days after the close of the first annual general meeting which is held after the counting of votes or, if a review is taken under sub-rule 6.54, then until that review has been completed, whichever is later.

6.57 The results of the election will be communicated by the nominating committee to each candidate at least seventy-two (72) hours before the commencement of the first annual general meeting which is held after the counting of votes and each candidate will be informed of the number of votes received for each candidate.

6.58 The results of the election will be announced at the first annual general meeting which is held after the counting of votes and may be disclosed prior to that annual general meeting by the Credit Union after approval by the nominating committee of the election results.

6.59 A listing of the candidates in the order of the number of votes received from highest to lowest shall be posted in each branch of the Credit Union as soon as the results of the voting have been announced and shall remain posted for three (3) business days.

6.60 Every director shall, forthwith after the director's election as a director of the Credit Union, file with the conduct review committee a statement of disclosure in the form established by the conduct review committee disclosing any conflicts of interest which the director may have.

6.61 Before commencing duties, a director shall complete and submit to the superintendent the personal information return in the form prescribed by the Financial Institutions Act, disclosing the prescribed information.

6.62 Subject to the Credit Union having the minimum number of directors required by the Financial Institutions Act, if the number of directors of the Credit Union is reduced below the number of directors stipulated in sub-rule 6.1 by death, resignation, disqualification or removal from office or by failure to elect or appoint a director pursuant to these rules, the remaining directors, save as provided by any other provision in these rules, shall have all of the power of the board until the vacancy or vacancies caused thereby have been filled by appointment or election.

6.63 Where a casual vacancy occurs among the directors or, for any reason, the office of director is not filled in an election, the board may appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy. Any person so appointed shall hold office until the close of the next annual general meeting.

7. DUTIES, POWERS AND PROCEEDINGS OF THE DIRECTORS

7.1 The board shall meet within fifteen (15) days after each annual general meeting and shall elect from their own number a chair and vice-chair and may appoint such additional officers as they consider necessary.

7.2 The board shall meet at least four (4) times in each year and not less frequently than once in each quarter.

7.3 The chair may call a meeting of the board at any time and shall, within fourteen (14) days of receipt of a written request of three (3) directors, call a meeting of the board.

7.4 Reasonable notice of a meeting of the board specifying the day, hour and, if applicable, place of such meeting shall be given by telephone, email or any method of transmitting legibly recorded messages. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting of the board to any director if such meeting is the meeting of the board at which such director is appointed.

7.5 Accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any director shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

7.6 A director may waive, in writing, notice of any past, present or future meetings of the board.

7.7 A majority of the number of directors stipulated in sub-rule 6.1 shall constitute a quorum but a lesser number may adjourn from time to time until a quorum is obtained.

7.8 A director who is interested, directly or indirectly, in a proposed contract or transaction with the Credit Union may be counted for the purposes of the quorum required by sub-rule 7.7.

7.9 Where the number of directors is reduced below the number fixed by, or pursuant to, sub-rule 7.7 as the quorum for directors, the continuing directors may act for the purpose of filling the vacancies up to that number, or of summoning a general meeting of the Credit Union, but for no other purpose.

7.10 The board shall appoint the president and secretary of the Credit Union, and may appoint or authorize the appointment of such employees as may be required for the proper operation of the Credit Union.

7.11 In the absence of the chair or the chair's inability for any cause to act or in case the office of the chair becomes vacant, the vice-chair shall discharge the duties of the chair.

7.12 Subject to the Statutes, the board may adopt rules of order governing its conduct but, where no rules are adopted, the most recent edition of "Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised" shall be used.

7.13 A director may participate in a meeting of the board or any board committee by telephone or other communications medium if all directors attending the meeting are able to participate in it, whether by telephone, by other communications medium or in person. In the case of an in person or partially electronic meeting of the board, a majority of the directors participating in the meeting must be in British Columbia at the time of the meeting. A director participating in accordance with this sub-rule shall be deemed to be present at the meeting and to have so agreed and shall be counted in a quorum therefore and be entitled to speak and vote thereat.

7.14 A resolution, whether or not in counterpart, consented to in writing by all directors or all members of a board committee and filed with minutes of the board or the board committee shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the board or of the board committee, duly called and constituted.

7.15 Subject to the Statutes, the board may delegate any of its powers to board committees, consisting of such persons as the board thinks fit and may, from time to time, revoke such delegation. All committees appointed or elected by the board shall be composed of not fewer than three (3) individuals.

7.16 Any board committee to which any power of the board has been delegated pursuant to sub-rule 7.15 shall, in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any terms and conditions that may from time to time be imposed upon it by the board.

7.17 The meetings and proceedings of any board committee shall be governed by the provisions herein contained for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the board so far as the same are applicable thereto and are not superseded by any regulations made by the board under sub-rule 7.12.

7.18 Every board committee shall report to the next succeeding meeting of the board all business dealt with by the board committee since the last preceding meeting of the board.

7.19 Every director must keep confidential and must not, unless authorized to do so by the board, disclose any information regarding the financial and other affairs of members of the Credit Union or any information regarding the business or affairs of the Credit Union which that director has received in the director's capacity as a director or any deliberations of or decisions taken by the board unless such information, deliberation or decision becomes part of the public domain or generally becomes available on a non-confidential basis.

7.20 No director shall be absent from, or fail to attend, three (3) consecutive meetings of the board unless the director's failure to attend has been approved by a resolution passed by the board.

7.21 Every director must comply with the conflict of interest guidelines, the code of conduct and the terms of reference.

8. REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

8.1 Subject to sub-rule 8.2, a person may be removed as a director by a resolution passed by not less than two thirds of the remaining directors.

8.2 The directors may not pass a resolution removing a director unless:

- (a) the director who will be removed has failed to comply with the Statutes or these rules or is not, or has ceased to be, qualified to be a director of the Credit Union;
- (b) at least seven (7) days prior to the meeting in which the resolution is to be considered, notice in writing of the meeting and a statement in writing of the grounds for such removal have been delivered to the director whose removal will be considered by the board; and
- (c) the director whose removal will be considered by the board is given an opportunity to appear before the board and to make submissions to the board regarding the resolution before the resolution is voted upon.

9. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

9.1 Subject to the limitations contained in the Financial Institutions Act, the Credit Union shall indemnify:

- (b) each former director and officer of the Credit Union; and
- (c) each person who acts or who has acted at the request of the Credit Union as a director or any officer of a corporation of which the Credit Union is or was a shareholder or creditor; against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle any action or satisfy any judgement, reasonably incurred by the director or officer or person for any civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding to which the director or officer or person is made a party by reason of being or having been a director or officer of the Credit Union or corporation, if the director or officer of the Credit Union or corporation acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Credit Union or corporation, as the case may be, and, in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, the director or officer of the Credit Union or corporation had reasonable grounds for believing that the director's or officer's conduct was lawful.

10. GENERAL MEETINGS

10.1 The annual general meeting of the Credit Union shall be held on a date and at a time to be fixed and, if applicable, at the place or places and in the manner determined by the board and shall be convened and held in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

10.2 Other general meetings may be convened and held in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

10.3 A general meeting, including an annual general meeting, may be held:

A person who participates in a general meeting held in accordance with this rule shall be deemed to be present at the meeting and shall be counted in the quorum therefor. Any person participating in a meeting under this rule and entitled to vote at the meeting may vote by means of the electronic or other communications medium made available by the Credit Union for that purpose.

10.4 The following procedures shall be followed at every general meeting:

- (a) the maximum time a member may speak to any issue is three (3) minutes unless the chair of the meeting allows them to speak for a longer period of time;
